

Letter from The Washington Aviation Committee to Alexander Graham Bell, October 22, 1909

Washington Aviation Committee 1202 F STREET NORTHWEST WASHINGTON, D. C.

October 22, 1909. Dear Sir:

You are earnestly requested to be present at a meeting to be held in the Board Room of the District Building, Tuesday, the 26th instant, at 4 o'clock, in the interest of the Washington-Baltimore International Aviation Meet of 1910.

The meeting has been called by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, in recognition of the importance of this meet and of the propriety and desirability of its being held in proximity to the National Capital.

Moving pictures of the recent aviation contest at Rheims, France, and addresses by prominent speakers at the meeting, will make clear the nature and great advantages of the proposed meet.

Very respectfully,

THE WASHINGTON AVIATION COMMITTEE,

Thomas F. Walsh, Chairman,

Charles E. Bell, Vice-Chairman,

D. J. Callahan, Secretary,

E. J. Stellwagen, Treasurer,
